WHAT'S IN THIS MONTH'S ISSUE:

MONTH OF REMEMBRANCE

Remembrance Day is observed on November 11 to recall the end of First World War hostilities. Hostilities ended "at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month" of 1918, in accordance with the armistice signed by representatives of Germany and the Entente between 5:12 and 5:20 that morning.

But Nov 11 isn't just about remembering the end of the First World War, it is also about remembering the many Canadians who have given their service to Canada and their lives over the years in conflicts since 1918.

- Nov 8 - Remembrance Day Service
